Requests for the date and time specified will be honored to the extent possible. Parents who have not yet received pre-baptismal instruction are required to attend a Baptismal Preparation Class that is held 5 times per year. PARISH REGISTRATION

We welcome all those visiting with us today. If you are interested in knowing more about our parish or wish to register for membership, please call the Parish Office. Registration forms are also available at each of the church doors.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Articles for the bulletin must be submitted in writing to the Parish center or by email to lgibbons@littleflowerparish.org by noon on Monday.

Dear Parish Family,

Our annual Halloween Party will be on Tuesday, October 31, from 6 to 8 p.m. Candy donations are still being accepted. You may drop your candy off at the parish office or the school office on Monday or Tuesday. Please see the flyer for more details. This party is one of the ways Little Flower reaches out to the neighborhood.

On Wednesday, November 1, we will celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, a Holyday of Obligation. On All Saints Day, we remember and give thanks for the special people in our lives who have died and who are now with God. There will be an all-school Mass at 9:30 a.m. and the Mass of Remembrance at 6:00 p.m.

Our Mass of Remembrance is important for the families who have lost family members this past year, but it is also important for us as a parish. At this Mass, we support families of parishioners who have lost loved ones, but we also remember and celebrate the lives of so many individuals who were an important part of our parish. Therefore, I invite and strongly encourage you to attend to help us remember our deceased parishioners and your own deceased family members and friends.

Thursday, November 2, is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, commonly called All Souls Day. On this day, we pray for all the faithful departed who may need our prayers. There will be an all-school Mass at 9:30 a.m. and an evening Mass at 5:30 p.m. All Souls Day provides us another opportunity to pray for our beloved dead. Historically, the month of November, especially All Souls Day, was a traditional time for visiting the graves of deceased loved ones.

Both All Saints Day and All Souls Day remind us of the unbreakable bond between us and those who have gone before us in death. We ask all the saints in heaven to pray for us, and we pray for all the souls in purgatory.

The annual All Class Reunion for Little Flower School is this coming Saturday November 4. We are hoping that many alumni will attend. Please see information elsewhere in The Theresean. Pass the word along to school alumni. Reservations are due by Monday, October 30. At this year's dinner, we will honor Cindy Werner Woods, Class of 1963, Joe Meyer, Class of 1982, Angie Rathz Mackell, Class of 1983, and Drew Torzewski, Class of 1994.

Because of the All-Class reunion, there will be no confessions on Saturday, November 4.

Several people have asked me if I have heard anything about the missing (stolen) relic of St. Therese. I have not. Unfortunately, I doubt that I will. Please pray to St. Therese for its return Daylight Savings Time ends this coming Sunday, November 5, at 2:00 a.m. Therefore, please do not forget to move your clocks back one hour before you go to bed on Saturday night, November 4.

Have a wonderful week.

fr. Bob

We remember our former parishioner, Leo Evans, who passed away on August 11 and whose funeral liturgy was celebrated here on October 21. We extend our condolences to Mary and Joe Shaler on the death of Mary's brother, Larry Wills II, who passed away on October 19 and whose funeral liturgy was celebrated here on October 27. Please keep all of Leo's and Larry's family and friends in your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. May God welcome Leo and Larry into his eternal glory.

Mass of Remembrance

Our annual Mass of Remembrance will be on Wednesday, November 1, at 6 p.m. During this special liturgy, we remember by name those members of the Little Flower community who have died in the past year. There will also be an opportunity to remember other loved ones who have died recently. If you would like to have a candle lit in remembrance of someone not buried from here in the past year, please arrive by 5:50 p.m. and write their names on the list that will be available at each door.

Thanksgiving Blessing Bags

As previously announced, the Thanksgiving Blessing Bags are available for pickup in church this weekend and will be available until all 100 bags have been distributed.

Simply purchase each of the items on the list included with the bag and return your filled bag to church on the weekend of November 11/12 or to the parish office by Monday, November 13.

All men of Little Flower parish are invited to join a Saturday morning prayer group. These bi-weekly meetings will take place in the parish center from 7:00-8:00 a.m. See parish calendar for specific dates.

This once long-standing tradition at Little Flower is coming back after several years hiatus. We will read and reflect upon the Sunday scripture passages, followed by open discussion. We hope to strengthen our spiritual lives, while encouraging group fellowship, support, and prayer.

LECTORS will need their new workbooks for the year beginning with the readings of November 25 and 26. Please pick up your copy in the sacristy.

The next Baptism Preparation Class is Monday, November 13 at 7:00 p.m., in the Parish Center. This class is “My education was funded by the United Catholic Appeal. I could not have done it on my own, I just couldn’t have done it. To ensure that that happens, to make sure that people are there to help young men discern and grow in that holiness and happiness, we need the resources of the UCA.”

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

As you’re walking back to your pew, consider that Jesus himself is within you now, the same Jesus who walked the lakeshores in Galilee, and who died on a cross for you. Tell Him your most urgent concerns, even if you are angry, or disappointed. He is near---He couldn’t be nearer----and He is listening in love.
